

Councilman Parrington Attends Street Dedication Ceremony

Friday, 06 August 2010 08:38

Islip, NY – Islip Town Councilman Gene Parrington recently visited the family of Aristides Calderon, a veteran who died from a military-related illness, to dedicate a Central Islip street to his memory.

Pictured is Councilman Parrington (left) at the small ceremony on Bronx Avenue, along with Jose Calderon (second from left); Frank Ciulla, of the Sayville American Legion (fourth from left); and the Calderon family.

Councilman Parrington Attends Street Dedication Ceremony

Friday, 06 August 2010 08:38
